Cleveland High School

"I stand amid the dust of the mounded years — A shrine, a monument to achievement."

Dedicated To Cleveland High School Class Poem »

1. Dear Cleveland, the time has come at last when out into the open world we pass, leaving the walls we loved so dear, before the test of the world to appear.
2. We enjoyed the days spent here with you. We loved the students, our dear teachers too; and as we leave may we impart, and instill advice within your heart.
3. To the "Freshmen," study hard each day; consider your homework as nothing but play; and someday when the victory is won; you'll rejoice in the work you've done.
4. "Sophomore's," you're climbing step by step up the same ladder the Juniors crept; Climb on and upward, never stop; by that way alone will you reach the top.
5. Dear "Juniors," you our closest friends, will not find it easy to reach the end; If you carry your books down through the ages, and never look within their pages.
6. You think for often all life is only a dream; Things are not nearly so hard as they seem; What's the use to study, nothing's gained, you'll reach the Senior line just the same.
7. Cut class, now and then and have some fun; There's plenty of time for work to be done; and when a Senior you come to be, you'll have more than one opportunity.
8. You need not come to class all day; at the end of the month you'll have an "A"; Then far joy you hug yourself; and say I though surely I had an "F."
9. Take heed and do not do these things; you must work to reach your goal in fame; It always pays to do your best; Then you are sure to win success.
10. We are sorrow we have to leave you; But there are other things that we must do; And when we reach the top of the hill, we'll think of you and love you still.
11. Then when your journey here is o'er, and you go as others go on before; Remember dear old Cleveland High, and the things done here in days gone by. —GENEVA BORDERS.

Senior Class Will

We the class of 1940 being about to pass out of this sphere of education in full possession of a crammed mind, well trained memory and almost superhuman understanding do make this our last will and testament.

We bequeath to the dear faculty, who have been our instructors in all the wisdom of the ages a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. It has been a hard strain on them, for Seniors are said to be at all times and under all conditions difficult to manage. But they have all done their duty and verily, now shall they have their well earned reward. We bequeath to our Superintendent Mr. Abernathy our deepest reverence. To Cleveland High School as a whole we leave our good discipline and behavior.

To our home room teacher Mr. James D. Hoskin the profound admiration and ever enduring friendship of the class of 1940, in individual as well as collective manifestation.

To all the future class presidents, Herbert Raper leaves his ability to convince and give unerring judgement.

To the football team of next year the ability of Charles Hopper, Herbert Raper, Joseph Teamer, and Warren Cabiness.

To individuals in the Junior Class we hereby bequeath the following:

First to their home room teacher Mr. R. L. Garrett all of the events of our lives, past, present and to come.

To Pearline Davis, Faye Cornwell leaves her frankness, and her hair styles.

To Marion Lattimore, Mildred Bankhead leaves her mellow voice, studious ability, and her pleasing smile.

To Mamie Moore, Mary London leaves her musical ability, dramatic ability in comedian accent, and her gift of gab.

To Geneva Harrill, Lula Teamer leaves her quiteness, her ability to match colors, and her place as treasurer of different clubs of the school.

To Mary Lee Hogue, Leonia Logan leaves her light weight, neatness in dress, and her Freshman likes.

To Selma Davis, Theopia Littlejohn leaves her beautiful hair, her physie, and her athletic and cooking ability.

To Juanita Carson, Betsy Hogue leaves her heavy weight, and memorizing ability.

To Alma Butts, Geneva Borders leaves her initiative ability, her inquisitive tactics, and her Lunch room book keeping task.

To China Slade, Benlah Earl leaves her good writing ability, and her modesty.

To Elsie Enloe, Bessie Turner leaves her slowness, her flattering mirror, and better luck next time.

To Irene Bankhead, Essie Bass leaves her varsity height, and her school girl complexion.

To Madeline Roberts, Priscilla Johnson leaves her senior dignity, and her short height to who ever it may concern.

To Heneretta Hood, Ada Bell Butts leaves her good discipline, and her cooking ability.

To Mary R. Carson, Nedra Keaton leaves her studious ability, her A's and her like for kiddish tactics.

To Charity Wallace, Christine Cannedy leaves her broad smile, her appetite, and her cooking and sewing ability.

To John Henry Johnson, Charles Hopper leaves his northern swing, his dramatic ability, and his athletic and romantic ability.

To James Camp, Boy Gatherright leaves his studious ability, his business like ways, his editorial ability, and his dependability.

To Maurice Wilson, Herbert Raper leaves his good giving ability, his athletic ability and his gift of gab.

To C. F. Wallace, Joseph Teamers dreamy ways, his quiteness, and passing ability.

To Clifford Thomas, Warren Cabiness leaves his scholastic achievements, his dramatical and athletic ability, and his long legs.

To Sherwood Enloe, Willie James Butts leaves his athletic ability and his good disciplne.

To the Freshman Class that is to be any overlooked cuds of gum we may have left adhering to the underside desks, banisters, assembly seats or any likely or unlikely places.

Our seats in class room and chapel, may the Juniors endeavor to fill them as advantageously as promptly and as faithfully as we have done. Our seats in the Assembly room may be taken by who ever is able to grab them first.

Our senior dignity, may the Juniors uphold it forever, with all seriousness and gravity, endeavoring to realize its vast importance. In spite of their natural light mindness and irresponsibility.

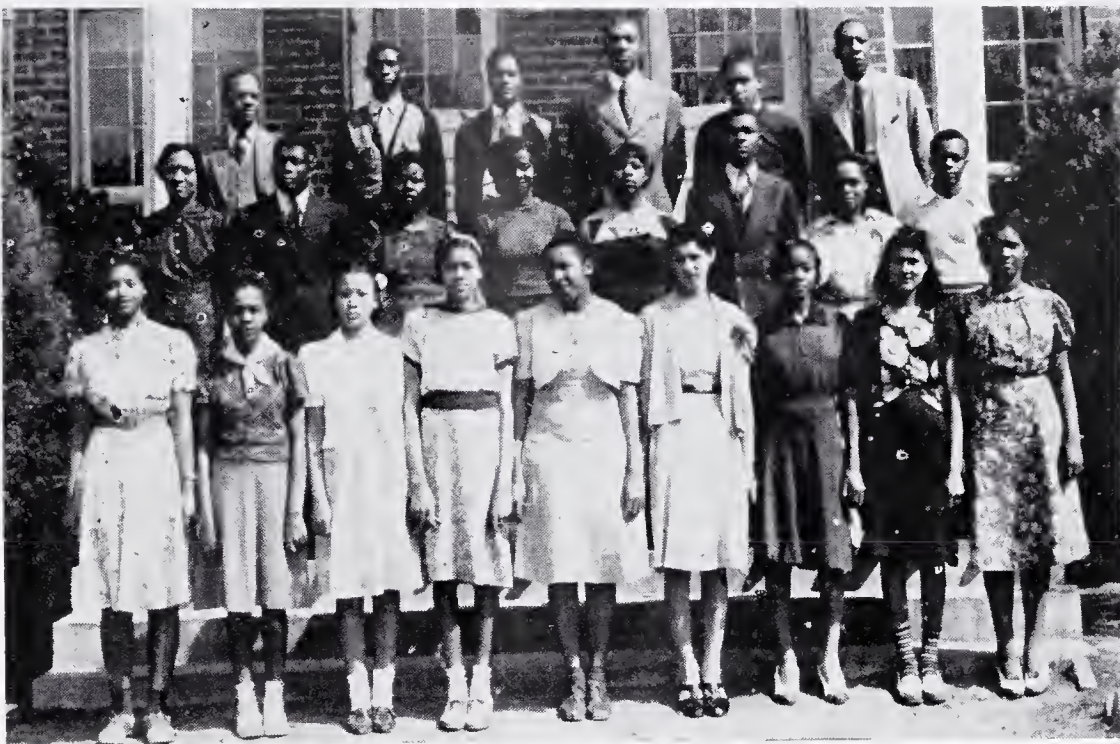

Any stubs of pencils, that we may inadvertently leave behind us in the excitement and haste of gathering up our cherished treasures for the last time, feel free to use them and feel perhaps that they may in some mystic way import some of our great knowledge to them.

Besides these enforced gifts we leave not of necessity but our own free will, our blessing tender memories, for our pleasant associations together and our forgiveness for anything that we may not have exactly appreciated in the demonstrations of the past and a pledge of friendship from henceforth and forever.

All of the rest and residue of our property whatsoever and wheresoever of what nature kind, and quality soever it may be and not herein disposed of we bequeath to our beloved principal for his use and benefit absolutely, and to be disposed of for the good of the coming classes as he may see fit, and we do hereby constitute and appoint the said Principal sole executor of this our last will and testament.

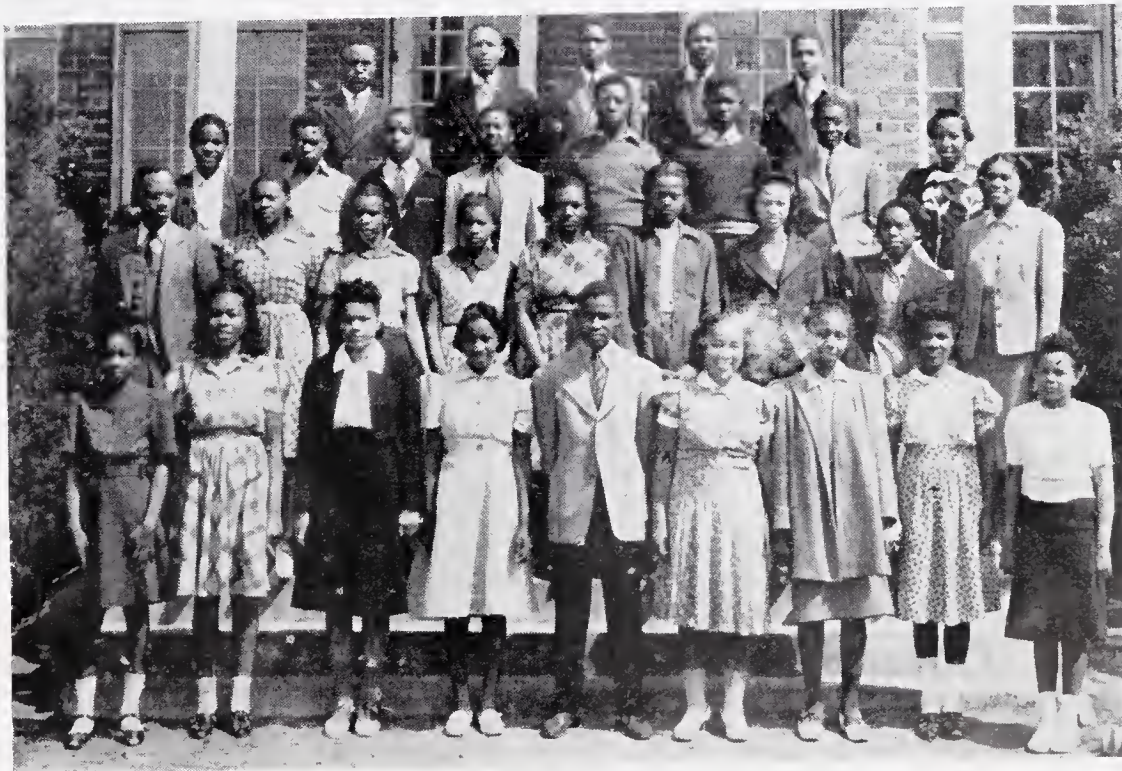

In witness where of, we the class of 1940, the testators have to this our will written on this sheet and set our hands and seal this day of May, one thousand nine hundred and forty.
